Majorette battles on despite failing sight

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

BRAVE Haverhill major-ette Rebecca Fernandez is hoping crowds will turn up to watch an annual tournament next month which could be her last.

Despite being diagnosed with a brain tumour almost two years ago, Rebecca has carried on as a majorette, even though deteriorating eye sight has meant special bright pink batons and equipment have had to be made for her.

After a long operation to remove the tumour and another to remove a blood clot, followed by daily trips to Addenbrooke's Hospital for radiotherapy, Rebecca is now in remission.

Tests at Moorfields Hospital have revealed that since her radiotherapy last year, Rebecca's sight has deteriorated and she is now registered as partially sighted with tunnel vision, only seeing things directly in front of her.

She has been told her sight will not improve, but is hoping it does not deteriorate further and has another MRI scan in October.

Rebecca, who is a beauty student at Cambridge Regional College, said she was determined to carry on performing with the troupe as long as possible. She said: "At first I noticed I could not see properly to put my make-up on. They have said it has got worse, but it does not seem that way to me because I think I have got used to it. I have bright pink ends on the baton and I think I know where it is going to be more than see it. I want to carry on as long as I can. The other girls have been great, they all watch out for me in competitions."

Rebecca, 17, has been a majorette since she was nine and her sister Melissa since she was three. When the troupe they belonged to folded in 2000, mum Kim helped start the Millennium Stars Majorettes in Haverhill, now the only troupe left in the town.

Even though the troupe has only 20 members, they have taken part in competitions around the region this year and brought home a haul of trophies from places such as Ipswich, Great Yarmouth and Colchester.

Rebecca is determined to give her best when majorettes from around the region compete in a tournament on Haverhill Recreation Ground on Sunday, August 26.

She also received some good news this week, the "Make a Wish" charity has granted her wish and she will be off to Florida with her family in November.

Kim said: "I am very proud of Rebecca and the other girls have been brilliant with her. The competition is our only fund-raiser. If we were a football team businesses would sponsor us, but they don't sponsor majorettes."

The competition starts from 8am and involves 10 troupes. There will also be stalls, a bouncy castle and a car boot sale people can just turn up for on the day.

Anyone interested in joining the troupe should ring 07900 230031.

Countdown to the Haverhill 10-5-1 Fun Run!

Taking baby steps towards Fun Run

Philippa Simmons may only be two weeks old but she's already in training for her first fun run as hundreds of people get out their jogging shoes for the big annual event in Haverhill.

The 10-5-1 Fun Run, which is organised by Haverhill Round Table, in association with the Weekly News, will take place on Sunday, July 29, starting at the Recreation Ground.

One team out to retain its position as winner of the group section last year is Wednesdays for Women, who have 10 entrants taking part in the 5k or 10k runs and several more joining the 1k Fun Walk.

Young Philippa's mum Fenella will take part in the walk along with her two other children aged six and four years.

Members of the group, which meets each Wednesday from 9.30am to 11.30am at the Leiston Social Centre, are taking part to raise money towards its running costs, now that funding from St Edmundsbury Borough Council has stopped. Wednesdays for Women is set to celebrate its 10th anniversary and, over the years, the group has provided many women with company, exercise sessions, talks and advice, as well as a crèche for their children. Fenella said its members all felt it was very important to keep the group going. She said: "There is nothing else like it. Wednesday for Women is for the mums, not for the children."

■ STEPPING OUT . . . mums from Wednesdays for Women will take part in the fun run.

"It is the only thing I have done in the past week which is just for me."

"I moved here from London and did not like it at first because it was so quiet, but I wouldn't move back now." Tanya Derby, 29, has only been to the group five times, but said it had also helped her make friends in the town. "I moved from London four years ago and I was shell shocked when I first got here. I came here for my kids, to give them a better time, but I did not know anyone. I call it 'Emmerdale Farm' because everyone knows everyone else's business. I have made a lot of new friends here now."

Member Julie Selwood said:

"It is a really nice group, when I moved here I did not know anybody."

"Here instead of being Josh's mum I am Julie. We all need a bit of 'me time', and the children are well cared for in the crèche." Michelle Eariss is particularly determined to complete the run this year after she broke her foot a week before the last event and had to pull out. She said: "I am definitely going to finish it this year."

Ann Boyd, a health worker who helped start Wednesdays 10 years ago, said it needed to continuously fund-raise now that its grant funding had run out. "It needs to carry on helping women. They get friendship, gain confidence, exercise with a fitness instructor and I can put them in touch with people who can help them."

Those interested in joining the group can just turn up. Potential fund-raisers should ring (01440) 760 924.

■ The Fun Run is sponsored by Specialised Print of Haverhill and The Haverhill Physiotherapy Clinic. The 10K race starts at 11am, the 5K at 11.05am and the 1K walk at 1pm. There will be medals for all finishers with trophies for the first three male and female entrants in the open, veteran and under-15 races. Entry forms are available at the Weekly News office in Queen Street.

Physios to support racers and plodders

A PHYSIOTHERAPIST based in one of Haverhill's most historic buildings will be particularly busy at this year's 10-5-1 Fun Run, as both a sponsor and a competitor.

Nicholas Lane of the Haverhill Physiotherapy Clinic, Anne of Cleves House, Hamlet Road, received his own race application form, from Gordon Millar, the chairman of Haverhill Running Club, after agreeing to sponsor the event this year, along with Specialised Print.

Nicholas said: "I have always been a keen runner and wanted to support Haverhill Round Table raise funds for charity causes and help Haverhill's needs."

Mr Millar, who runs Gforce Sports Therapy, will also be there to offer pre and post race massage.

Applications are coming in from afar this year, the eighth time the race has been held. Phil Parrott, organiser said: "The fun run is an event many people put in their racing calendar. With a testing course, once round for the 5K, or twice for the 10K, people can feel proud to have been part of the day."

The road race, fun run and 1km fun walk will be held on Sunday, July 29. Haverhill Town Council will be on hand to help it run smoothly, and will also be holding its Big Bash event, with entertainment and local charity stalls.

A purr-fect homecoming

A SEVERELY disabled man has been reunited with his missing cat.

Rob Bocock, left housebound after three strokes, was thrilled to welcome Tarka, his blue tabby-point Birman cat back to his home at Howe Road, Haverhill.

Rob's wife Eileen made an appeal last week in the Weekly News to find the cat and said she had been inundated with offers of help from readers.

She was reunited with Tarka after the cat was spotted at West Wickham, then taken to a vet at Linton who found his micro-chip.

Eileen said: "Rob is absolutely delighted to have him back."

"Tarka is a bit thin and strange, but he is home safely. Such a lot of people saw the story in the paper; and so many people have asked me about him and been so kind and concerned about him. "I just want to thank them all and let them know there was a happy ending."

Big day out

A FLIGHT simulator, Punch and Judy shows and plenty of other fun activities will be on offer at a free day out for all ages in Haverhill next Wednesday.

The annual Big Day Out in Haverhill will take place on the Recreation Ground from 10am to 4pm with a wide range of events planned to keep people entertained.

There will be games, face painting, quizzes, football tournament and arts and crafts, as well as a visit by a fire engine and advice on accident prevention and recycling.

The day also offers the chance to get involved in community groups and find out about various local services. It is organised by St Edmundsbury Borough Council and Suffolk County Council and supported by a voluntary and other organisations.

Toys stolen

TWO children's scooters have been stolen from the back garden of a home in Haverhill.

A chrome B-Flash scooter and a pink Barbie scooter were taken from the Ruffles Road property, between 3.30pm on Friday, July 13, and 8am on Monday, July 16. Anyone with any information about the theft should call Sgt Sarah Bartley at the Haverhill South Safer Neighbourhood Team on (01284) 774 100.

Punters give centre cinema thumbs up

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

FILM fans have given an overwhelming thumbs up to the cinema at Haverhill Arts Centre.

With the new multiplex cinema due to be completed next year the town council, which manages the centre, wanted to find out how the centre cinema might be affected.

A survey sent to 2,000 customers who had booked tickets for film shows in the past year produced almost 450 responses within a fortnight.

A massive 93 per cent of those who completed the questionnaire said they planned to continue attending films at the arts centre when the multiplex cinema opens.

The vast majority of customers who responded were aged over 45 and confirmed that they appreciated the friendly environment and the quality of the service that the arts centre provides.

Nick Keeble, Haverhill Arts Centre programmer, said: "We are hugely encouraged by the response to our questionnaire and would like to thank all those who took the time to fill it in.

"We are now able to confirm what is important to our audience and the things that we need to work on in order to retain their custom.

"From the information received we will be able to better plan our cinema programme in the coming years."

Attendances at the cinema for the April-June period have been the strongest since the town council took over the management of the centre in 2004.

Following the installation of subtitling and audio descriptor equipment, the cinema will soon be able to provide enhanced services for the partially sighted and hard of hearing.

Other improvements include a new screen, staged refurbishment of the seating and redesign of the marketing leaflet.

Haverhill Arts Centre is grant aided by St Edmundsbury Borough Council to provide cultural and community facilities for Haverhill and its rural communities.

■ BRIGHT IDEA... Coun Peter Stevens launches the battery recycling trial.

Picture: Richard Patterson 421117.

Recharging recycling message

SHOPPERS did a double take as a giant battery drove past them in the High Street on Tuesday morning.

Inside was Coun Peter Stevens who was launching a new scheme being tried out in Haverhill to do more to help safeguard the environment by recycling batteries.

The innovative kerbside collection will see distinctive magenta bags bearing the message "Do the positive thing. Recycle your batteries", delivered to every home in the Haverhill area. Residents are invited to fill these bags with their used, part-used and unwanted batteries.

There will be two collection schemes in operation, with some residents asked to leave the bag on top of their blue bin and others to hang it on a hook attached to the handle of their blue bin.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council is carrying out the trial, the first of its kind in Europe, in partnership with WRAP (Waste and Resources Action Programme). The scheme allows residents to recycle all types of household batteries, including AAA, AA, C, and D-size batteries as well as button, mobile phone, laptop and rechargeable batteries.

Coun Stevens, St Edmundsbury's Cabinet member with responsibility for the environment, said: "Our residents have always been keen and careful recyclers and we hope this simple and convenient trial will encourage them to put their unwanted batteries to a good use while significantly reducing the amount which go to landfill."

St Edmundsbury's scheme has been funded by WRAP and forms part of the country's biggest battery recycling trial. The results will help determine how best to collect batteries in the future.

For more information on the trial contact waste management at St Edmundsbury on (01284) 757320, phone the national helpline on 08453 313131 or visit www.recyclenow.com

Second boot sale will aid charity

HAVERHILL Show organisers will host another car boot sale on the Recreation Ground on Sunday.

Last week's event, organised in association with the Weekly News, is expected to have raised around £3,000 for LAMPH, the Haverhill-based group for children and adults with disabilities.

Mick Driver show society chairman, said the second boot sale would provide another event for the town and further boost LAMPH funds. People can just turn up on the day from 8am and pay £6 for a pitch.

Meanwhile, the show committee has issued a statement to quell rumours that LAMPH is about to fold. It said the youth group has been suspended because required policies and procedures have not yet been put in place, which would mean its insurance cover was not valid. It was hoped to get these in place and re-start the youth group as soon as possible. In the meantime the pre-school group was still operating and hoping to use proceeds from the Haverhill Show to fund a summer play scheme for children with special and additional needs.

The statement said LAMPH was still solvent as a group and continuing to operate as a registered charity.

Pub pair train in Pyrenees

FORMER landlords Marion and David Rowlinson are preparing to head off to the Pyrenees as they continue their training to walk along the Great Wall of China in September.

The couple, who retired recently after running the Plough Inn near Hundon for almost 25 years, are taking part in the mammoth trek in aid of the St Nicholas Hospice in Bury St Edmunds and hope friends and former customers will help them raise as much as possible.

They will be back in time for a charity dance at Hundon Village Hall on Saturday, August 4, featuring 42nd Street and an auction of promises. Tickets are available at the Plough or at Morley's shop in Queen Street, Haverhill.

■ FOCUS ON WASTE

Picture: Keith Jones 419422.

They've got rubbish sorted

SORTING out the "perfect bin" earned six middle school pupils some snappy digital cameras.

The pupils from Haverhill's Chalkstone Middle School slimmed down their bins to help spread the word about recycling.

The youngsters, from Years 7 and 8, were presented with their prizes by Coun Peter Stevens, the cabinet member of St Edmundsbury Borough Council with responsibility for the environment, at a special school assembly.

They had each taken part in the Perfect Bin competition, which encourages pupils to sort out their household recyclable waste to make sure that the maximum amount finds its way into the blue recycling bin instead of landfill.

The pupils' handiwork was checked by St Edmundsbury's crews as they completed their rounds. If they were satisfied the recycling bin contained all the right materials, the pupil was entered into a prize draw.

Another six pupils from the school have already won MP3 players this year for their efforts in the competition, run in 13 schools across the county with funding from Viridor Waste Management.

Funeral tributes overwhelm family

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

THE family of a man who collapsed and died from a brain haemorrhage have paid tribute to the crowds of caring people who turned up for his funeral.

Christopher Skinner was just 24 when he collapsed on Parker's Piece in Cambridge on Sunday, June 24, and died later in hospital. An engineer from Chapple Drive, Haverhill, he had carried an organ donor card and two other people's lives were saved after Christopher's family donated his kidneys.

Christopher's mother Anna said she, her husband Nigel and Christopher's sister Clare, wanted to thank everyone for their kind messages and support after the family's tragic and sudden loss.

She said they were particularly touched by the large number of young mourners –

■ ULTIMATE LEGACY...
by carrying an organ donor card Christopher Skinner helped to save two lives.

including Christopher's former classmates from Place Farm, Parkway and Castle Manor schools in Haverhill – who attended his funeral on Friday, July 6, at the Cambridge Crematorium.

Mrs Skinner said: "I don't really remember too much about it, only that it was absolutely packed with all these young people.

"It was amazing, they all had suits and ties on and almost every one of them came up to touch the coffin at the end. The whole family was really touched by it.

"We would like to especially thank Jane and Jess Mortifee in Canada, Peter and Pat Stubbings, Sarah Diver and all the ambulance, A&E, and neurosciences critical care unit staff who tried so hard to keep him with us.

"He will be missed by all those who knew him."

Cars attacked by vandals

A SPATE of damage inflicted on cars parked around Haverhill has been reported to police.

On Sunday a window was smashed in a grey Vauxhall Vectra parked in a lay-by at Fritton Court, Haverhill, between 3.45pm and 6.45pm.

At Warren Court, a blue Citroen C3's passenger-side wing mirror was snapped off between 9pm on Saturday and 6.30am on Sunday.

And at Mill Road, between 12am and 8.30am on Sunday, a white Vauxhall Astra van and a red Peugeot 106 were scribbled on with a black permanent marker pen.

Police are linking the crimes and anyone with information should call Sgt Sarah Bartley at the Haverhill South Safer Neighbourhood Team on (01284) 774 100 or call Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Thieves also removed, or attempted to remove, number plates from six vehicles in Rye Court, Layer Road and Shire Court, Haverhill, between 7pm on Saturday and 11am on Sunday.

Calls in relation to these incidents should be made to Sgt Sarah Bartley at the Haverhill South Safer Neighbourhood Team on 01284 774100 or to Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111

Hospital food praise

PATIENTS at West Suffolk Hospital are being served top quality meals, according to a recent assessment.

The hospital's food was rated as "excellent" and its standard of cleanliness "good" for the second year running in an assessment by the Trust's Patient Environment Action Team.

Chris Brown, chief executive of the hospital trust, said the assessment found patients received high quality food in a well-looked after environment.

He added: "These are results to be proud of.

"Our staff in the kitchens, house-keeping department and maintenance crews are to be congratulated on another round of good results.

"Nursing staff, who by the very nature of their jobs are always aware that patients need to be treated with respect and dignity, are also to be praised."

Drive in to city and pay - county

COMMUTERS choosing to travel into Cambridge by car could be forced to pay up to £25 a week to enter the city.

Plans are under way to introduce a rush hour congestion charge, where motorists wanting to get into Cambridge between 7.30am and 9.30am would have to cough up between £3 and £5 a day.

But Cambridgeshire County Council, which wants to introduce the charge, has vowed to improve public transport across the entire county to help commuters - and has put in a bid for £500 million of Government funding.

The council has said the proposals are "a long way off" from being finalised and has promised that public transport improvements will be in place before the charge is put in place.

Coun Shona Johnstone, council leader, said: "We've got to be bold. I accept some will be opposed to congestion charging but I believe that by using the charge in the right way, i.e. tackling congestion when it is at its worst and using money from it to provide better public transport alternatives, we can reduce congestion in Cambridge and keep the city as a place where people want to work, visit and shop."

She added: "I am absolutely clear that we still need to get into a proper discussion with the people and businesses of Cambridgeshire to find out what they think the issues are and how we can best tackle them."

If funding is secured, a major package of public transport measures could be put in place including subsidised bus fares across the county.

Police tell drivers 'stick to the rules'

BY Jo Deeks

TWO town centre beat officers are appealing to the public to observe traffic restrictions.

Pc Christian Thomas and Police Community Support Officer Les Scott look after Haverhill town centre and are launching a campaign to get people to stick to the rules and not drive into the High Street when pedestrianisation restrictions are in force between 10am and 4pm.

Pc Thomas said they were trying to improve the current situation where the traffic ban was widely flaunted – pedestrians often found themselves dodging vehicles, some of them travelling at speed.

He said: "We don't want to become traffic wardens just giving tickets out. We would like to do something more original and remind people about the restrictions.

"We want to establish some good contacts with the community so that people enjoy coming into the town centre and we cannot do that if we are busy handing out tickets all day.

"It is in everyone's interests to make the pedestrianisation restrictions work."

Anyone who would like to meet the beat officers can ring (01284) 774 100 to arrange a visit.

Promise of big days out

A CHANCE to explore the past is offered by two events happening on the recreation ground in Haverhill.

Parents and children can come along to the Big Day Out next Wednesday, from 10am to 4pm, and discover Victorian toys. There is also the opportunity to decorate a T-shirt.

The following Sunday, July 29, will see The Big Bash take place. As part of all the fun, there will be an exhibition in partnership with Havebury Housing Partnership called Discover Your Past, celebrating the redevelopment of the Clements estate, with photos, a film and the chance for people to share their memories of the town in the early 1960s.

Hangbag theft

A HANDBAG has been stolen after it was mislaid in a Haverhill alleyway.

The bag was taken from Peas Hill, between 7pm and 7.30pm on Saturday.

Anyone with information can call Pc Christian Thomas at the Haverhill South Safer Neighbourhood Team on (01284) 774 100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Hose heist

BUILDING materials were stolen from a site overnight. Thieves entered a storage block at a building site, at Withersfield Road, Haverhill, between 4pm on Tuesday and 9am the next day, and stole a hose and fittings. Anyone with information about the theft should call Pc Guy Ainsworth at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774 100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

■ SUPER EFFORT . . . some of the pupils who helped the school achieve its best set of results in its 15th year.

Dancers score amazing marks

A BALLET school is celebrating its 15th anniversary – and some of its best ever results in recent exams.

The Ballet Shoe Workshop at Hundon has just received results which again show a 100 per cent pass rate. Pupils took 154 exams in a range of subjects, and achieved 154 passes, and 93 top marks.

The school, run by Alison Law, teaches pupils from the age of three with no upper limit in age. This week it held its summer presentations for all pupils to demonstrate their work and to receive their examination awards and certificates.

When pupils return in September they will be working towards a Christmas show, which usually has two sell-out performances at Castle Manor School in Haverhill.

Anyone interested in joining the classes can contact Alison on 07821 197 107 or at balletshoeworkshop@yahoo.co.uk

Keeping kids out of trouble

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

YOUNG people in Haverhill can look forward to a summer of fun thanks to a new activity scheme funded by a local housing group.

Youngsters aged between 10 to 19 years old can enjoy activities, including football and swimming, as part of a packed agenda, which will run from Friday to Saturday, September 8, in various locations around the town.

The sports sessions will be led by qualified coaches from Positive Futures, a national scheme supported by crime prevention charity Crime Concern, which aims to provide a positive influence in the lives of young people.

Roger Bolton, chair of Havebury Housing Partnership's Tenants' Forum, who lives in Haverhill and was instrumental in recommending the activity scheme for funding from Havebury, said: "Positive Futures ran a similar scheme for young people in Haverhill last year and, as a result, there was a definite decrease in levels of anti-social behaviour in the town.

"We felt it was important to build on this success and provide backing to help strengthen our local community."

Havebury has provided more than £1,700 to fund the project and many of the sports sessions will be run close to estates owned by the West Suffolk landlord to make it easier for young people to participate.

Peter Lock, housing services manager at Havebury, said: "During the summer holidays we often receive complaints about youths gathering on estates or playing football close to properties.

"Havebury is keen to divert youths into positive activities and, through the project, we aim to offer organised sessions which young people will want to take part in."

The summer activity scheme will run in addition to the successful Teenage Kicks football and youth dance project, which is currently operating in the town.

Teenage Kicks is jointly funded by Havebury Housing Partnership, Haverhill Town Council and West Suffolk Crime and Disorder Reduction Partnership.

For a full list of the summer activities on offer contact Havebury on (01440) 718 400, visit Havebury's offices in Manor Road, Haverhill, or ring Haverhill Positive Futures on 07717 290 572.

Success of fair marred by banner theft

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

■ APPEAL . . . the search is on for a banner with the Sturmer Strawberry Fayre logo.

MEAN thieves hit a community fair by stealing the banner advertising the event.

Organisers of the first Sturmer Strawberry Fayre on Saturday, June 23, were really pleased with the support they got despite awful weather in the morning and hope to make it an annual event.

However, they were bemused and upset when someone took the banner promoting the event and just left the poles which had held it up.

Now they are issuing a plea for help in finding the banner.

Ann Aken, a member of the organising committee, said: "The fair proved to be a tremendous success, there was a brilliant atmosphere and a real feeling of community spirit.

"Unfortunately the event was marred by someone stealing our advertisement banner from the common, leaving only the support poles in situ.

"The promotional banners were one of the most expensive items purchased for the fair, but as they are reusable the committee felt the cost worthwhile and intended to recycle them next year."

The fair was held at Sturmer Common, next to Woodlands Hotel.

Anyone with any information about the theft of the banner should contact Ann on (01440) 708063.

Car damaged

A CAR was scratched along both sides while parked overnight in Haverhill.

Prize for pupils' wildlife haven

CHILDREN at a tiny village school are celebrating winning an environmental award for setting up a wildlife area in its grounds.

Ridgewell Primary School won first prize in a biodiversity competition for schools, run by the Colne Valley Consortium, in the face of keen competition from other schools and groups.

Their £200 prize has been used to buy four infra-red nestcams so pupils can monitor birds nesting in the area.

The primary already has a 'forest school' area and a pond that pupils have helped to create.

Gill Ansell, forest school leader, said: "We are delighted to have won this prize. We had to say beforehand what we would spend the money on and the children agreed on the cameras."

Car route is testing time for drive teams

A TWISTING 16-mile trail through the villages of Suffolk and Essex tested the metal of drivers taking part in the Haverhill Chamber of Commerce and Industry annual car rally.

Twelve teams entered the competition this year, on a totally new route devised by Paul Cammish of Adams Harrison solicitors, to win the coveted winner's shield and prizes provided by Wicked Wheels UK Ltd.

The overall winners, with 53.5 points out of a possible 55 were Flip-Flop Marketing. Steve Darbey from Wicked Wheels presented the victors with a bottle of champagne and a car valet kit. Last year's winners Linda and Jim Page, who had come to defend their title, romped home in second place, and third place went to Sarand Business Software.

Paul Donno, chairman of the Haverhill Chamber, said: "I was at the start and finish lines offering my encouragement to all the teams. Everyone had such a great time."

The Chamber's next event is on September 25 at The Taste of China restaurant in Birdbrook. The lunch-time gathering will include a "taster session" of a new personnel coaching programme, Jigsaw@work, designed to help managers find out people's preferred working patterns.

Chamber member Jacqui Burke, of Flourishing People, will run the session, which costs £7.50 for members and £10 for non-members, and includes a light buffet.

Pomp of the Proms swoops in to Duxford

WELSH opera singer Wynne Evans will be entertaining the crowds at the Flying Proms on Saturday. The event, at the Duxford Imperial War Museum, will also see live music from the English National Orchestra led by the colourful conductor Jae Alexander and soprano Janet Mooney, as well as choreographed aerial displays and fireworks. Evans, current principal tenor for the Welsh National Opera, hails from Carmarthen and studied at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama and the National Opera Studio in London. He has played leads in many of the world's most celebrated operas including La Boheme, La Rondine, and Falstaff and is the soloist on the upcoming CD Here Comes the Classics from the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra. Jae Alexander has made a name for himself for putting on a performance for the crowds. A natural showman he has performed as a singer, pianist and on the West End stage before coming one of the UK's youngest professional conductors. Some of Duxford's best loved planes, including Spitfires and Lancasters, will also be stars on the night and fly aerial displays choreographed to music. Outstanding guitarist in summer concert

HAVERHILL Summer Music draws to a close on Sunday when outstanding guitarist Milos Karadaglic joins Haverhill Sinfonia.

The concert will take place at Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College at 7.30pm. In a perfect evening for the first-time concert-goer, Haverhill Sinfonia will be performing three of the best-known pieces of music from the orchestral repertoire, which promises to be a real treat for music-lovers. The melodic Four Slavonic Dances by Dvorak will be followed by the most famous of all guitar concertos, the Concierto de Aranjuez by Rodrigo portraying a vivid picture of Spain, particularly in its haunting middle movement. The remainder of the concert is given over to the powerful Fifth Symphony by Beethoven. Milos Karadaglic has already established himself as one of the most promising young musical talents. By the age of 14 he had already performed in most of the major concert halls in Montenegro and Yugoslavia and became nationally recognised. He was awarded a scholarship to the Royal Academy of Music (RAM)

■ IN CONCERT WITH HAVERHILL SINFONIA . . . Milos Karadaglic.

and graduated with First Class Honours in 2004. He continued his studies at the RAM for another two years and received a master in performance course with distinction. He currently holds a Meaker Fellowship at the RAM for his work on the materials from the Robert Spencer Collection. Milos has given recitals in various London venues, Edinburgh, Bristol's Colston Hall, Paris, Italy and toured Serbia and Montenegro, and made live BBC broadcasts, as well as winning many top music prizes. Haverhill Sinfonia, will be conducted by Kevin Hill, and tickets cost £9 (concessions £6 and £2) and are available at the door or in advance by telephoning (01440) 763799. Murder mystery

DIMINUTIVE mild-mannered sleuth Miss Marple is being brought to the stage by local theatre company Bawds at the ADC Theatre next week.

The company chose Agatha Christie's classic whodunnit A Murder Is Announced for its summer show opening Tuesday. One of Miss Marple's most fiendishly complex adventures, the story opens with the residents of Chipping Cleghorn shocked by an advertisement in the local paper announcing that a murder will take place in the village. A curious crowd gathers at the allotted time and place and just as anticipation reaches fever pitch the lights go out, a strange visitor arrives and a gunshot rings out. Luckily Miss Marple is passing through while visiting a friend in the village and helps the puzzled local constabulary with the perplexing mystery.

The show runs until Thursday, July 28, at 7.45pm with a matinee on Saturday at 2.30pm. Tickets are £7-£9. To book call (01223) 300 085 or visit www.adctheatre.com

New office for letting agency

A LETTING agency with a difference, CXG Property Services, has launched its new office in Haverhill's High Street.

"The ethos behind CXG is to enable landlords to achieve maximum rental returns, no matter what size of property they own – we have tenants waiting to rent all types of accommodation," said commercial director Daniel Pilley.

"The format is a closely guarded secret, but it basically comes down to the friendly customer service we offer both landlords and prospective tenants.

"All we ask is that people give us a chance to come and view their properties and we will give them a free rental assessment. We believe our service represents the best value on the high street."

CXG also offers an investment service run by Robin Pilley.

"We often get cases in which vendors need to sell urgently to enable them to generate capital quickly," said Robin. "In this situation CXG steps in on behalf of its clients and negotiates a good deal for both parties."

CXG has buy-to-let mortgage specialists and solicitors on hand to assist in purchases, as well as an in-house maintenance team ready to carry out any improvements to enhance a property's value.

It is then handed over to the lettings department, run by Elaine Grubb, who has been with the company since its inception two years ago.

"The expansion has been remarkable and there is no sign of it slowing down," said Elaine. "We planned for rapid growth, but it has exceeded even our expectations. We're also expanding worldwide, and have properties to rent in France and Spain."

CXG Property Services is at 65A High Street. For further information call 0870 034 5351 or visit www.cxg.uk.com

Acacia Property Management

Ten good reasons...

Here at Acacia we aim to lead by innovation and offering that little bit more. So if you have a property that you wish to let then here's ten reasons to instruct our team to act for you. We don't believe that you will find all of this elsewhere in the marketplace.

£100 Cash back Instruct us to let and manage your property before 30th September 2007 and we will send you a cheque for £100.00 when your first tenant moves in.

Competitive Fees Our management fees are just 10% + VAT plus just a small admin fee if you wish for us to register the deposit in the new Tenancy Deposit Scheme. There are no other extras.

Free Rental Insurance At the start of the first tenancy, we will issue at no cost to you a rental guarantee insurance policy. This policy will give landlords peace of mind when letting their home, particularly those landlords who rely on the rental income to cover a mortgage.

Member of NALS We are members of the National Approved Letting Scheme. Member agents offer a regulated service, have professional indemnity insurance, client money protection insurance and must operate to pre-defined standards of service.

Secure Landlords' Website A feature incorporated into our sophisticated property management software, once logged in you can access all your information on our database such as Property Details, Rent payments and accounts, inspections/findings, repairs outstanding/ completed and safety information such as periodic gas inspections.

Comprehensive Marketing Your property will be advertised in full colour in the local papers, on www.acacia-property.co.uk, www.lettings4you.co.uk and www.rightmove.co.uk. Rightmove receives over 4 million rental searches each month.

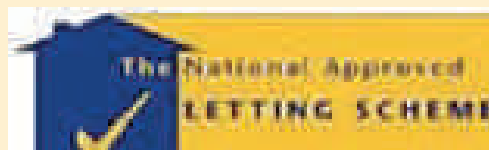

Regular Inspections All managed properties are visited every three months and a report of our findings on the condition of the property and grounds sent to owners. This means that we can be confident in the advice that we give should tenants wish to stay on at the end of the initial lease.

Local and Experienced We are based in Brinkley, local to the area and have been successfully letting property for 9 years. We are specialists in residential lettings and are independent of any estate agency, thus enabling us to offer sound and impartial advice.

Range of Landlords' Insurances We are an appointed representative of Letsure are able to arrange a variety of specialised let property insurances such as buildings, contents, rental warranty, emergency assistance and legal expenses.*

Personal and Complete Service As a small team we get to know our clients. From the day you instruct us to manage your property you will receive our personal attention. We will deal with all aspects of the tenancy process, ongoing management, repairs, maintenance and financial accounting. In short we take care of it all and you need only be as involved as you wish to be.

HAVERHILL WEEKLY NEWS

MOTORING

Funky i is fantastic footprint

IT'S NOT often that a car comes along and forces you to rethink what's really important when it comes to personal mobility, but Mitsubishi's i car fits the bill.

On the one hand it's a curiously styled turbocharged, rear-wheel drive, four-seater from the makers of the manic Lancer Evolution series. And yet, it's also a spacious, practical, frugal and highly manoeuvrable city car.

Whichever way you look at Mitsubishi's baby, there's no denying the urge to look. In isolation the car appears to have fallen from the sky having missed its connection to a galaxy far, far away. Space age doesn't come near to describing the car's egg-like profile, upright rear and concept car nose.

With New Zealand to date the only other right-hand drive market getting the car, and the UK allocation a bold 300 for 2007, there's the potential for more if demand skyrockets. Whatever the outcome, the UK is very much a test bed for gauging interest now and for the future.

Built to comply with Japan's class of tax-friendly city cars, this

FIRST DRIVE

'Baby' great fun in city

IAIN DOOLEY

"K-car" is only 3,395mm long, 1,475mm wide and 1,600mm tall. And yet it's a proper four-seater with a boot and all – don't forget the engine's under the boot floor.

Ah yes, the engine. Another regulated element of the K-car rules, this Mitsubishi is powered by a 660cc, turbocharged petrol motor pushing out 57bhp. A wiper motor on a Mercedes S-Class might be more powerful, but when this Mitsubishi weighs only 1,080kg less really is more.

Top speed is a perfectly adequate 84mph and the sprint to 62mph is achieved in a not too shabby 14.9 seconds. Remember, this is not supposed to be an autobahn stormer. As such, the engine's 144g/km CO2 rating means the green lobby can sleep at night and you pay peanuts road tax.

The i car is a sprightly city tool

■ THE MITSUBISHI I... an egg outside, a tardis inside.

with room for four people or a combination of occupants and a modest amount of belongings. Around town you're not going to be worried about outright top speed, but it's good to know that the little Mitsubishi can easily embarrass many regular cars at the traffic light grand prix. With its low weight, keen engine and responsive auto gearbox, zipping around town couldn't be easier if the throttle and brake pedals were renamed

"Go" and "Stop" respectively.

The kit list is generous. Alloy wheels, ABD plus electronic brakeforce distribution, twin front airbags, remote central locking plus an immobiliser, Isofix rear child safety seat mounting points, leather for the steering wheel and stubby gearlever all shame rivals.

Basically...

Compact, sprightly and nimble, yet fine transport for four adults.

Two Counties Show sets record

THE Two Counties Motor Show, which took place earlier this month at Newmarket's Rowley Mile, raised a record £20,000 following an all-time attendance high of 4,500 visitors.

The event, which took place on July 2, was "bigger and better" according to the organisers, Cambridge, Ely & Newmarket Lions Clubs.

Attendance figures confirm that around 3,500 people attended the show, well up on last year. The total amount to go to charity was boosted to £20,000 thanks to the Davis Group's donation of £1 for every person who went through the gates.

"This is a fantastic amount and we'd would like to thank all those who supported the show from our sponsors, the Davis Group, the News and Star Radio to the Newmarket racecourse, the dealers and traders and also to the public who came along to support us on the day," commented Cheryll Clarke-Morgan, one of the many who helped organise the event. "The weather was on our side and I think all who attended the show had a great day."

Marshall's won this year's "Best dealer stand" award. Next year's show will take place on June 29, 2008.

Car makers in green futures step shift

NEW car releases – and even motor manufacturing plants – are stepping up the pace to save the planet.

Renault has just announced that it will launch its first bioethanol car in the UK – the Mégane Hatch E85 – at the end of 2007, while Smart says its new Fortwo, out in September, is even more ecologically-aware than its predecessor.

And even in the making of the machines, we have Ford saying that its wind-powered Dagenham, Essex, plant has cut back thousands of tonnes of carbon dioxide (CO2) output.

Cars first – the Mégane Hatch E85 is in line with eCO2, the French firm's commitment to producing vehicles that remain environmentally-friendly across their whole life cycle, from design to eventual recycling.

Under its eCO2 scheme, Renault offers customers a choice of vehicles across its ranges, which are both kind to the climate and motorists' pockets.

So the new Mégane E85 uses the 1.6 16-valve 105bhp engine, a petrol unit that has undergone modifications so that it can adapt to bioethanol fuel.

Upgrades to the fuel tank, the injection system and combustion chambers were developed with input from Renault in Brazil, where the firm has been selling Clios and Méganes that can run on bioethanol since 2004.

Using E85 bioethanol fuel in Britain attracts a new business-user tax incentive of a two per cent discount on taxable car benefits, and the Mégane E85 also comes with a top five-star safety rating.

Renault sees biofuels as an effective long-term solution in the quest for control over CO2 emissions, as they are a renewable, plant-based energy source.

The crops used to produce biofuels absorb CO2 from the atmosphere as they grow, and bioethanol is made by distilling fermented vegetable matter, typically in the form of wheat or beet in Europe, sugar cane in Brazil, or maize in the US.

■ MÉGANE E85 . . . Renault's first bioethanol powered car will be on sale soon.

The resulting fuel is then mixed with petrol in varying proportions: five per cent for E5, 10 per cent for E10, 85 per cent for E85, and 100 per cent for E100.

Prices and a full specification for Renault's Mégane E85 will be released nearer the end-2007 on-sale date.

The new Smart Fortwo, meanwhile, remains true to the firm's philosophy of combining a lifestyle product with environmental protection.

Priced from £6,900, and on sale in Britain from September 15, the Fortwo will continue to be available with Pure, Pulse and Passion trim levels, together with new petrol engines and a five-gear transmission system, and a 7-inch (19.5cm) longer body.

Smart – an official partner of the recent Live Earth concerts – has this comment from Mercedes managing director Dermot Kelly: "The new Smart Fortwo offers a solution to the problems associated with urban mobility – and we need to have solutions like this if we are to face up to the issues around climate change."

The larger body provides better pedestrian safety and rear impact protection, as well as improved ride comfort, and the Fortwo is the only car in its class to offer an electronic stability control system as standard.

Anyone wanting more details of the new Smart can log onto www.smart.com/uk

Finally, Ford's engine production at its wind-powered Dagenham plant is saving thousands of tonnes of CO2 and diverting almost twice as much waste from landfill.

■ DAGENHAM PLANT . . . Ford is using wind turbine energy for much of its power.

Dagenham Diesel Centre reveal that 6,500 tonnes of CO2 a year are avoided by wind turbines installed over three years ago.

Ford Dagenham's other eco-efficient processes prevented more than 12,600 tonnes of waste being sent to landfill for disposal.

Stuart Burn, the Blue Oval's technical specialist, says: "We're delighted our eco-efficient production at Dagenham is minimising environmental impact – and we are also helping the consumer. Ford Fiesta models powered by these new 1.4 and 1.6-litre diesel engines emit under 120g CO2/km – putting them in the £35 road tax category."

MOTORING

■ SUZUKI SPLASH . . . all round ability and excellent styling should ensure success.

Suzuki makes a nice Splash

SUZUKI has announced that it will launch a new model called Splash, the company's fourth new model in three years.

The new compact model will make its debut at the Frankfurt Motor Show in September before going on sale in Spring 2008.

Suzuki will build the new model at its Esztergom plant in Hungary alongside Vauxhall's new Agila with which the Splash will share much of its engineering. "The main visual differences between Splash and Agila will include different bonnet, wings, headlamps and bumper and rear tailgate, tail lights and bumper," the company says.

The Japanese manufacturer hopes to sell around 60,000 Splash units a year following its launch, building on the success of the Swift, SX4 and Ignis.

Suzuki is keen to point out that the Splash will not be a direct successor to the Wagon R+ model that was designed for the Japanese market and later sold in Europe. "Based on completely different criteria, Splash's design is mainly tailored to the requirements of European customers," said the Splash project's chief engineer Toshihiro Suzuki.

In 2004 a group of ten

Suzuki engineers travelled to Germany for six months, spending the time analysing European trends in cars, fashion, lifestyle and design before applying the findings to the Splash project.

Suzuki believes the resulting car will be a major player in the mini-MPV segment. "While ideally suited to tight parking conditions, the 3.72 m-long car offers sufficient space for up to five occupants plus plenty of sports and leisure equipment," it says.

The new model will come with a choice of three engines; a one-litre, three cylinder petrol with 65PS, a 1.2-litre four-cylinder petrol with 86PS and a 1.3-litre diesel with 75PS. Both petrol units will be Suzuki designed and built, with the diesel engine produced by the company at its new diesel engine plant in India under licence from Fiat.

All models will feature a five-speed manual gearbox, with the option of a 4-speed automatic transmission with the more powerful petrol engine.

■ SPLASH INTERIOR . . . bright and spacious.

ONE OF A KIND

There really is only one company like us. We are only 3 years old, but in that time we have become a dynamic and innovative force in print & online contract publishing and international conference management. What makes us really special, however, is that although we make our money through big ticket advertising and sponsorship telesales, we do so in an intelligent, mature and mutually supportive environment.

Due to extremely rapid expansion, we're looking for a Sales Manager to run (initially) two global titles together worth considerably in excess of £1 million p.a. You'll not only need to be an exceptional advertising/sponsorship salesperson capable of working internationally and at the highest level, but also a true leader capable of motivating and inspiring a talented and mature sales team. In other words, the cheap, the cheesy, the nasty, the negative, the tired and the emotional need not apply! Speedy progression to full Sales Director will be available for the right candidate.

The opportunity is based in East Anglia and offers a competitive package incorporating basic salary, override and personal commission.

In the first instance, please send a scintillating CV and covering letter (with details of your current / last remuneration package) to smrecruit@btinternet.com

CRICKET

UNBEATEN Lowry Engineering are continuing to dominate the Adams Harrison Midweek League season. They are odds-on to win the league title and booked their place in tonight's final of the AH Cup where they will face Horseheath.

Tom McNulty guided Lowry to a comfortable win over Weston Colville in their semi-final, smashing an unbeaten 36 after John Newman took 3-27 to tie down their opponents, with Adam Taylor the only batsman to break loose with 29. Horseheath, however, only just had the edge in their semi against Abington, whose Stefan Gordon top-scored with an unbeaten 29.

Ashdon remain on course to retain the League Cup, easing through their semi-final against Thurlow with nearly two overs to spare after John Millership put them in a strong position with an unbeaten 47. They will face Great Yeldham, whose first season back in the league just keeps getting better, Matt Holt taking four wickets to see off Mill Green.

In the league, former champions Abington, who are anchored at the foot of the table, successfully chased down Horseheath's big total in their Division One clash. Gary Ellis (61) and Neil Winter (53) were pivotal in setting a daunting 168, which Abington passed with four balls to spare thanks to Matt Thomas (49) and Harry Randall's unbeaten 63. Lowry's drive to their first title continued at the expense of Long Melford, Jon Woodgate (69) and McNulty (56 not out) instrumental in their innings. Justin Burton made 31 and Lawrence Hall 25 in Long Melford's reply as Stuart Morrison took 3-21.

Haverhill's title hopes are almost over after defeat at Weston Colville. Taylor (28) and Arvid Patel 33 top scored for Weston against Martyn Wilkins' 3-24 and Dan Poole's 3-28. In reply Simon Youngs hammered an unbeaten 58 but Haverhill finished six runs short. In Division Two, Ashdon (Michael Furze 60, Jamie Beswick 3-16) scored a comfortable win against Acton, while Gestingthorpe probably thought 149

(Daniel Willingham 34 and Chris Moulton-Day 25) was enough against nine-man Brockley. However, Joe Reed had other ideas, slamming nine sixes in a staggering unbeaten 110 to guide them to an unlikely win.

Hundon picked up a welcome win against nine-man Highpoint in Division 3A, Gary Laver (45) and Paul Smith (29 not out) seeing them in despite 73 from Shaun Griggs and 29 for Steve Oglesby. Gestingthorpe II's highlight in the clash against leaders Clare was 46 for 16-year-old Harry Wright, but Clare won with five balls to spare, despite Lee Phillips taking 3-17.

Great Yeldham continue to push Clare all the way after a comfortable win over Wratting Lions, a game which saw an unbeaten 52 for Nick Wright and three wickets for Matt Hoadley.

STEPHANIE Smith will be going for title success on three fronts at the North Essex Bowling Federation finals on her home green at Haverhill next weekend. Smith saw off Grace Cutts 25-15 in the last four of the ladies' three-bowl triples to set up a final against B King, and she will also face King in the ladies' pairs final. She is also in the ladies' secretaries' singles final.

Semi-final results: Men's two-bowl singles - S Botten (Haverhill) 22 R Bareham (Cornard) 20, L Blackham (Boxford) 21 K Moore (Radwinter) 15; four-bowl singles - S Botten 21 G Williams (Boxford) 17; champion of champions singles - K Moore 21 R Bareham 20, T Grayson (Grampian) 21 S Botten 20; three-bowl triples - G Williams 18 K Moore 14. Ladies' two-bowl singles - M Thompson (Grampian) 21 G Searle (Radwinter) 14, B King (Cornard) 21 T Taylor (Grampian) 10; four-bowl singles - M Thompson 22 S Smith (Haverhill) 20; champion of champion singles - M Wells (Radwinter) 21 S Smith 16, M Snook (Boxford) 22 M Thompson 14; senior singles - M Cotton (Sudbury) 21 M Thompson 16; secretaries' singles - S Smith 21 V Noy (Cornard) 15, T Taylor 21 C Hills 18; pairs - S Smith 28 J Day (Boxford) 6; B King 26 P Mizon (Haverhill) 9; three-bowl triples - S Smith 25 G Cutts (Boxford) 15, B King 21 G Searle 20.

Openers combine to put sad Weston to the sword

SENIOR CRICKET

OPENERS James Howells and Ben Clement showed no mercy to Weston Colville in a high-scoring Tucker Gardner Cambs and Hunts Premier League, Division Two clash.

They led Godmanchester II to a three-wicket win after Adrian Westley smashed 80 and Patel Arvid hit 57 as Weston Colville scored 242 for 8 against Jamie Rice's 5 for 66.

But Howells (82) and Clement (65) combined to build an opening partnership of 131 and set the foundations for Godmanchester's reply of 245 for 7, despite the efforts of Matt Daniels (4 for 52).

In-form Robert Ketteridge sliced through the March Town II side as Horseheath racked up a 56-run win in their Cheffins CCA Senior League, Division One encounter.

Opener Dan Goldsmith struck 78 to give Gary Ellis' charges a quick start, before Ketteridge amassed an excellent 95 to steer the hosts to 257 for 9.

Richard West (3 for 50) and Callum Young (3 for 56) were the pick of the bowlers.

Not content with his afternoon's work, Ketteridge proceeded to torment March, claiming 4 for 48 from 12 overs as the visitors were dismissed for 201.

Keith Donno made a brutal century to guide Stumps and Studs CCA Junior League, Division, Division 2SB leaders Thurlow to a 61-run triumph against Audley End & Littlebury.

He finished on 114 not out and was assisted by Martin Farrant (45) as they set an imposing 239 for 3.

Dennis Willis (3 for 11) and Ben Piper (3 for 39) then bowled excellently to leave their opponents well beaten on 178.

■ ADRIAN WESTLEY ... hammered 80 but Weston Colville still lost by three wickets to Godmanchester II in Division Two of the Tucker Gardner Cambs and Hunts Premier League

Wratting put 'Becks' foot forward

WEST Wratting will be hoping a little bit of the David Beckham magic runs off on them this season. Their under-10 Reds side travelled to Greenwich for a day at the England star's Academy for a morning of coaching followed by a tournament. After a tour of the building, during which they got to see lots of Beckham memorabilia, they got down to the serious business of the round-robin, eight-a-side mini league tournament for the six teams present. And, after kicking off with a goalless draw, West Wratting won their next four games without conceding a goal to emerge as the day's champions. Results: West Wratting 0 Shrivenham 0, West Wratting 4 Kennington Colts 0, West Wratting 3 Watlingtonbury 0, West Wratting 2 Holland FC 0, West Wratting 2 Stratton Juniors 0. Scorers: Joshua Ruthven (3), William Bailey (2), Stephen Boyles (2), Cameron Kidd (2), Alex Carter, Sean Elsom. Squad: Ben Eames, Sean Elsom, Paul Jenkinson (capt), Stephen Boyles, Cameron Kidd, Joshua Ruthven, Leon Bailey, Alex Carter, Joshua Osuchukwu, William Bailey.

■ ROB SULLIVAN... 'I tried to change the bowling around but it just got worse.'

Haverhill hopes hit

HAVERHILL'S stay at the top of the Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship's Division Three table suffered another setback on Saturday.

They suffered a shock six-wicket defeat at basement dwellers Worlingworth to take a slice out of their lead.

Neil Winter hammered 62 with Adam Dellar scoring 30 as Haverhill were restricted to 187 for 8.

However, Worlingworth's openers did the damage, putting together a stand of 101 before Russell Davies made the breakthrough.

It was too, little too late, though, and the hosts went on to make 191 for 4.

Captain Rob Sullivan said: "The opening bowlers took a bit of stick but one of their batsmen was clubbing it from the first ball.

"I tried to change the bowling around but it just got worse before Russell got the breakthrough.

"But by the time we got him out, he'd already done the damage for them."

Other results Ipswich (6pts) 147 Kelvedon & F (20pts) 171 for 9, Mildenhall II (19pts) 106 for 6 Brockley (4pts) 102 for 8, Sudbury II (19pts) 170 for 9 Dunmow (7pts) 169 for 9, Tuddenham (20pts) 161 for 8 Lakenheath (7pts) 158.

Rovers in tough test

HAVERHILL kick-off their return to the top flight of the Ridgesons League with a home game.

They face Wisbech Town at Hamlet Croft on August 11 at the beginning of a testing week.

Steve Taylor's men, who lost just three games last season as they took runners-up spot in the First Division to seal promotion to the Premier Division, travel to Stanway Rovers four days later.

And Rovers complete a tricky opening when they host defending champions Wroxham – who racked up a mighty 102 points last term – on August 18.

The first derby of the season is on September 15 when Rovers make the short trip to John Taylor's Newmarket Town, while the home clash with Kirkley & Pakefield on December 8 will also see local bragging rights up for grabs.

A Boxing Day clash at home to Histon Reserves is followed by the return match against Kirkley three days later, and a trip to the Abbey Stadium to face CRC gets 2008 underway on January 2.

Taylor's troops are scheduled to finish the season with a trip to Leiston on May 3.
